Local Teacher Receives Award for Making School Cool

Brooks – Shelly Prins, a teacher at Brooks Composite High School, will be presented with a 2006 Teacher Award sponsored by The Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA). At an awards program and surprise presentation, Prins will receive a cash prize of $1,000 to be used to promote math and science education in the school.

Location: Brooks Composite High School
650 – 4 Avenue East
Date: Friday, June 9, 2006
Time: 1:00 p.m.

“Mrs. Prins realizes that fun and enjoyment are an integral part of education,” writes one student on the nomination form. Other students write that: “Mrs. Prins is an extremely positive role model” and “She has left a life-long impression on my life.”

The APEGGA Teacher Awards program celebrates math and science teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools for the excellence they demonstrate in shaping the intellectual and creative development of students and for their outstanding efforts to Make School Cool.

“Each year APEGGA recognizes 14 Alberta teachers who have a profound and lasting impact on students,” says Jeanne Keaschuk, APEGGA senior outreach coordinator. “This award program rewards exceptional teachers and helps them to further enhance the classroom experience.”

Established in 1920, APEGGA is responsible for regulating the practices of engineering, geology and geophysics in the province of Alberta. The association’s 44,000 members play a significant role in every segment of the economy, and their technical and management expertise ensure Alberta remains at the forefront of technological innovation.
