Third Calgary Teacher Receives Award for Making School Cool

Calgary – Clint Condie, a math teacher at Queen Elizabeth High School, is one of three Calgary science and math teachers to receive one of the 16 provincial 2009 Teacher Awards sponsored by The Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA). At a year-end school staff luncheon, Condie will receive a cash prize of $2,000 to be used to promote science and math education in the school.

Location: Queen Elizabeth High School
512 18 Street NW
Calgary, AB
Date: Tuesday, June 30, 2009

Praise for Clint Condie

“Mr. Condie teaches mathematics at a rarely achieved level of excellence,” writes a student. “Every student deserves a teacher like him,” writes another student.

“Mr. Condie exemplifies the dream teacher,” writes a parent. “His professionalism and positive work ethic are exemplary,” writes a colleague.

The APEGGA Teacher Awards program celebrates math and science teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools for the excellence they demonstrate in shaping the intellectual and creative development of students and for their outstanding efforts to Make School Cool.

“This year APEGGA recognizes 16 Alberta teachers who have a profound and lasting impact on students,” says Jeanne Keaschuk, APEGGA Outreach supervisor. “This award program rewards exceptional teachers and helps them to further enhance the classroom experience.”

Established in 1920, APEGGA is responsible for regulating the practices of engineering, geology and geophysics in the province of Alberta. The association’s 55,000 members play a significant role in every segment of the economy, and their technical and management expertise ensure Alberta remains at the forefront of technological innovation.
