

The Light Shines Here

Official Call for Nominations

Do you believe in recognizing the top projects and accomplishments of your professions? In honouring the brightest and most deserving of your peers? In building the value and image of engineering, geology and geophysics?

Do you believe in celebrating excellence?

Then prepare a Summit Awards® 2010 nomination today. Visit www.apegga.org — and give the best their due.

DEADLINE: October 30, 2009

The Summit Awards®

Great Professions. Great People. Great Heights.

And the categories are...

The Centennial Leadership Award

This award is presented to a Member of APEGGA who has attained the highest distinction relating to the science of engineering, geology or geophysics as an executive or director of an outstanding project or continuing enterprise in which the Member has conducted, guided or directed or was responsible for the practice of the specific profession. The recipient may have also attained the highest distinction because on invention, research or original work, on an outstanding or exemplary career in teaching professions.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The L.C. Charlesworth Professional Service Award

This award is presented to Members of APEGGA who have served their profession diligently for many years and made substantial contributions to the operation of the Association and the advancement of its professional status.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Frank Spragins Award

This award is presented to Members who are recognized by their peers for their integrity and expertise and for their outstanding accomplishments in fields related to engineering, geology and geophysics.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

Honorary Life Membership Award

The Council may confer Honorary Life Membership in APEGGA upon any Professional Member who has rendered eminent service to the Association.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

Honorary Membership Award

The Council may confer Honorary Membership in APEGGA upon any person, who through initiative and leadership, has rendered eminent service allied with the professions. The nominee's work will have contributed to the betterment of society through the development of new material, equipment, techniques, philosophy or management related to engineering, geology or geophysics.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Excellence in Education Award

This award is presented to Members of APEGGA who have made exemplary contributions to teaching and learning at a recognized post-secondary teaching establishment in Alberta.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Early Accomplishment Award

This award is presented to Members of APEGGA in recognition of exceptional achievement in the early years of a professional career as an engineer, geologist or geophysicist.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Community Service Award

This award is presented to Members in recognition of an outstanding contribution they have made to society.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Outstanding Mentor Award

This award recognizes exceptional achievement as a mentor.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Project Achievement Award

This award is presented to a project demonstrating engineering, geological or geophysical skills and representing a substantial contribution to technical progress and the betterment of society. The Association will give credit to those firms and/or persons assuming key roles in bringing the project to completion.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Environment and Sustainability Award

This award recognizes excellence in the application of engineering, geological or geophysical methods towards preservation on the environment and the practice of sustainable development.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Alberta Ingenuity Fund Research Excellence Award

This award recognizes professionals in academia or industry who have conducted innovative research in engineering, geology or geophysics that has been successfully applied to improve our economic and social well-being.

To prepare a nomination visit www.apegga.org

The Summit Awards®

Great Professions. Great People. Great Heights.

