Local Teacher Receives Award for Making School Cool

Hinton – Roz Andreiuk, a teacher at Gerard Redmond Community Catholic School, is one of 14 Alberta teachers to be presented with a 2007 Teacher Award sponsored by The Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA). At the Evergreen School Division awards for teachers, Andreiuk will receive a cash prize of $1,000 to be used to promote math and science education in the school.

“Ms. Andreiuk has shown me a world of science beyond textbooks. She has opened my eyes to the connections and the possibilities. I feel like I am part of science. She has inspired me to look for a career in science,” writes a student.

“Ms. Andreiuk’s approach captivates the attention of all her students. She is a teacher who teaches from experience and the heart,” writes a colleague.

The APEGGA Teacher Awards program celebrates math and science teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools for the excellence they demonstrate in shaping the intellectual and creative development of students and for their outstanding efforts to Make School Cool.

“Each year APEGGA recognizes 14 Alberta teachers who have a profound and lasting impact on students,” says Jeanne Keaschuk, APEGGA Outreach supervisor. “This award program rewards exceptional teachers and helps them to further enhance the classroom experience.”

Established in 1920, APEGGA is responsible for regulating the practices of engineering, geology and geophysics in the province of Alberta. The association’s 49,000 members play a significant role in every segment of the economy, and their technical and management expertise ensure Alberta remains at the forefront of technological innovation.
